Efficiency in Working.
A GOOD SEWING MACHINE
SHOULD BE WELL MADE, simple in its construction, and easily kept in order; sit and make a firm LOCK-STITCH, alike on both sides of the material, and should sew any and all materials that can be sewed.
It should be able to use cotton, thread, or silk, directly from the spool, and sew it in coarse to fine, and from thick to thin, with rapidity, and without changing the tension. It should also be able to make the tension greater or less, in both the under and upper threads, and with uniformity; and should have a straight needle; curved ones being liable to break.
The needle should have a reciprocating motion; this is also quite necessary for heavy work.
It should be able to bind with a binder, hem with a hemmer; should stitch, fell, run and gather; and always ready to work.
It should be capable of using the same size thread on both sides of the work, and of using different sized thread on the shuttle or below, to correspond with any two colors of cloth to be united.
It should be able to make a long or short stitch, and to fasten at the seam, and then cease using it, duly at the first stitch, and commence by, and make but little noise.
It should run as a wheel-cart; no others are in contact or contact with the work.
It should not be liable to get out of order; neither should it require a screw-driver or wrench to adjust the needle.
It should not be liable to fool the operator's fingers.

No flag but the Old Flag—the Red White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true
Arise and defend it — 'tis one of the laws

SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 15, 1862

Perfectly in Character

The Portland Advertiser of yesterday contains an article headed "Republican Hypocrisy." It is a hash up of all the niggerisms which have adorned the columns of that paper in all past times—and which seem to be the essential ailment of its existence We will give the article a passing notice

For the convenience of our readers we will follow the writer through it

"The mask, like that of the false prophet of Korassan, has been removed, and the diabolical policy of the republican abolition party stands naked before the world, an eternal monument of blackest treachery"

The Advertiser, who has been dealing in niggerisms ever since secessionism was advocated in its columns, now tells its readers, as great news, that the "mask has been removed, and the diabolical policy of the republican abolition party stands naked before the world"

And what is the new light which has burst upon the Advertiser? He says it is this

"The present Administration and Congress of the United States, are in favor of emancipation of the slaves, right or wrong, the arming of the slaves for the massacre or subjugation of the Southern people, and the confiscation of the Southern States, for the use of the victorious blacks, or their noble abettors —the successful abolitionists"

The inauguration and progress of this rebellion shows these facts: that it was gotten up to establish a nation in the South based upon slavery, that in its progress slaves are used to sustain this iniquity—they are made to build fortifications, to do all the menial labor of the rebels—are a great element of their strength and power—and, when convenient or necessary, arms are put into their hands and they are forced to fight in behalf of slavery—to break down our national government and to rivet the chains upon their race now and in all time hereafter

In this state of the argument, in Congress and out of Congress—leading democrats and leading republicans—have taken the position that this system of slavery should not be permitted to be used for the destruction of the Union—but that, if necessary to sustain it, freedom should be given to the slaves of rebels everywhere—and John Cockrane, a distinguished democrat, in an address in New York, declared that if necessary, arms should be put into their hands and they should be told to strike for their freedom. The property of rebels, whether it be slaves or horses, cannon or cotton, will not be permitted to be used to sustain rebellion, and like all other rebel property, will be at the disposition of Government. Slaves confiscated will never go back into the hands of their former masters The rebels have assumed all the consequences of rebellion, and will be made to taste the bitter cup they have prepared for themselves

"This is the policy, this the programme of the republican party, nay, do not start, Congress is as full of bills, of enactments and of schemes, for the fulfillment of this christian and philanthropic programme, as hell is of fiends"

The programme we have given is not that of republicans, but it is that of the nation —democrats as well as republicans—of Union men everywhere As Andy Johnson of Tennessee declared in a public speech, 'If the question is whether the Union or slavery shall be saved, LET SLAVERY GO!'

The fourth paragraph is a random medley of garbled and confused ideas—Cromwell, Congress, the Athenian Council, sequestered States, Council of Nine, immaculate Republicans, Continental Monthly, are printed together in a manner void of rhyme or reason To close this hash, the Advertiser sinks upon its knees, as he did when he prayed God to paralyze the arms of Government, when the rebels were threatening an attack on Washington, and vociferates, "Democrats! are the ethics!" Go to the spelling-book and learn what that teaches before you speak of "ethics" You are deliberately lying when you affirm that this war was made by the North for the abolition of slavery You know that if it was made for this purpose, it was made by the South, and whatever may be its results to them or to slavery, they are alone responsible An armed traitor is detestable, but a lying apologist under the guise of a peace democrat, is doubly so

The fifth paragraph opens thus, which is a fair type of what follows

"Democrats! It is proposed by Cameron and his colleagues, that four millions of slaves should be armed and let loose upon their masters, that a general massacre of the whole white population of the Southern States, should be the means of conquering the rebels Suppose the arson, robbery, rape and murder completed what is to become of the victorious assassins?"

The word 'Democrat' has been so abused that it stinks when it comes from the mouth of a secessionist Half the population of the South, love the Union. No such policy has been thought of No such course would be permitted We have often been told that "slaves love their masters" Would the slaves harm them?

"When will the eyes of the American people be opened to this sea of horror, surging and swelling to overwhelm them? Good God! to what a depth of misery have we fallen!

The party of the Advertiser is distressing. His eyes may open to this sea of horrors when his friend King Davis' banner becomes triumphant, and every lover of freedom in the Union are driven to Canada according to the dicta of one of his own tribe!

The true traits and character of this slave advocate are thus inadvertently presented

"Is the condition of the African in the Kingdom of Dahomey to be placed in comparison to the condition of the slave on the plantation of a merciful master?"

'Merciful master!' Ask the slaves who fled and mourn bitterly their merciful masters because they would not run after them in their escape from the rebels near Port Royal! Ask the girl whose blood and skin were nearly white, who escaped to the Union army from the "merciful master" who had bought her at a high price to be his bestial mistress?

"In Africa the savage is dirty, idle, shiftless, brutal and savage"

And consequently, here, we should bind them down to servitude to "merciful masters" —who will in all time keep them "savage, dirty, brutal, idle and shiftless," when not under the lash of the driver

"In America, he is clean, healthy, civilized, industrious, happy and useful"

The Advertiser man, it is evident, would have no scruples of conscience in engaging in the slave trade, so far as his instincts of morality are concerned, and if opportunity had offered he might have been concerned with the slave trader Gordon, who recently dangled from the end of a rope in New York We have no doubt Gordon felt justified in stealing negroes and bringing them to a country where they could be made 'clean, healthy, civilized, industrious, happy and useful'

It is manifest that the Advertiser considers that the great object of our Government is to perpetuate slavery That is the run of his argument We say with Douglas that this Government and country are for white men, and when the question, Shall slavery be sustained and the Union go down? or shall slavery go down and the Union be sustained? we say with Andy Johnson, "LET SLAVERY GO DOWN!" And we believe this to be the unwavering decree of eighteen millions of freemen

Murder of Miners.

We gave yesterday all the details we have received of the murder of miners on John Day's river by the Snake Indians The interests of our State and of Washington Territory, and of the General Government, require that the Indians concerned in these murders shall be as speedily punished as possible The Indians in question have been for years murdering our people They are supposed to be a band of outlawed Indians, called Snakes, who have no resting place in Summer, and make their homes in some deep recess of the mountains in Winter They cannot be reclaimed, they will not be treated with—and they must be rendered powerless for evil This is demanded by humanity. Whenever they can, stealthily, get up to our camps, as to an individual, they invariably murder

We shall have full business for the Oregon Cavalry. They were designed to protect our frontiers And so soon as the regiment can be properly organized and properly fitted out, we hope to see it on the way to the frontiers, not only to protect our citizens from Indian aggression, but sternly to punish the guilty for their past murders

KILLED BY AN OFFICER — A few days since while Deputy Sheriff Arnold was out hunting for prisoners, he became aware of the whereabouts of J V Clarey, under two indictments in this County for larceny committed about a year since at Tibbets & Burk's mill across the river by stealing a quantity of flour—and whose partner in guilt is now working out his sentence in the penitentiary Mr Arnold informed the Prosecuting Attorney, W W Page Esq of the fact who immediately sent the necessary papers to the Sheriff of Clark county, W T, and yesterday received the following letter

VANCOUVER, March 14th, 1862

W W PAGE, Esq — SIR — Immediately on the receipt of your note, I went in pursuit of J V Clary and fell in with him on the morning of the 12th, about eight miles from this place Found him to be one of the most desperate men I have ever seen Not being properly armed and not having proper assistance, did not succeed in the arrest I immediately returned to Vancouver, armed myself and took with me Deputy Jones and overtook him at the house of B F Ianer, about twenty five miles from this place, at about 11 o'clock, P M the same day He refused to be taken at the same time using the most profane threats that he would murder the first man that would raise a hand to take him; consequently there was no alternative but to shoot him I can have his body in Vancouver. A Coroner's inquest will be held to-day I do not suppose it necessary to bring his remains to Portland

The above are facts as far as they go, but do not have time to give particulars Please write me immediately on receipt of this and oblige Yours Truly

Letter from the Dalles

The Ice Blockade — Weather — High Water — Condition of the Roads — Navigation above the Dalles — The condition of things at Walla Walla and Lewiston — Return of John Day's Mining Party. — Eleven Men Killed by Indians — Two more missing etc

DALLES, March 12th, 1862

Without any comment it is sufficient to say that the Ice Blockade between this place and Portland is at last raised, and the boats are able to run through to within two miles of this place

In the course of two or three days the ice will be out so that the boats can come to the landing This is the longest freeze up that has ever been known on the Columbia River and people are almost bewildered with the fact that the business of the season is upon them, with the spring far advanced

The ground is yet covered with snow except on the southern slope The weather is warm and pleasant in daytime, and freezing at night, with every two or three days a fall of snow

All the creeks and rivers above here are at the highest stage of high water some of them even higher than last fall Des Chutes and John Day's rivers have for two weeks been impassible for any thing but a skiff The roads are execrable in every condition No attempt is made to drive any kind of team between here and Des Chutes, still less beyond. No boats have attempted to run in the river above, and according to the best information that I can get, cannot run for several weeks to come, and even if they could, transportation over the Portage is impossible

While this is the condition of the country between here and Walla Walla Lewiston and the Mines, let us see how matters are there. I can best shew you that by making a few extracts from a letter received here to day, dated Walla Walla, Feb 23d "Everything has been dull here for the last two months, —nobody doing anything Hotels had to close to get rid of strapped boarders It is thought that three fourths of the stock has perished, and many more will die before they can get grass Working oxen are worth two hundred dollars per yoke

"The Salmon River excitement remains about the same Many are starting in all sorts of ways and conditions, and few with any money Some on foot with all they have on their backs, some with a hand sled, and others pack a beef's hide and drag it over the snow It reminds me of my experience on the road to Pike's Peak Oats are worth ten cents per pound, Wheat, $2 00 per bushel, Wood, $12 00 per cord, Flour, $25 00 per barrel, and board $14 00 per week, and Bacon 40 cents per pound. At Lewiston, Flour, and Bacon are worth 50 cents per pound, Oats $1 00 per pound and Meals $2 00 They are also short of provisions there, and will see hard times if they don't get some there before long"

From Salmon River there is no important news

The only item of news from any mining locality is from the party that went out last November to winter on the head waters of John Day's river, about 180 miles from here That party consisted of 32 men with about 30 animals, and provisions to last six months The names of the party were B Woodard J Bennett, Joseph Seror, E Lewis, Solomon Richards, D F George Wm Ewing F W Quimby, John Stevens, Wm White, Peter Taylor, Samuel Shaffer, (Lewis Barbo, Maire, Bourbon, Benudy—French men,) Wm Holmes P F Holbridge, Geo W Knapp, James Carter, T B Burst E Hightower, Wm Skelton, E J Bernham Michael Hanley I Loffingwell, Wm McGlenn Chas Stewart, Capt Starr, and Thos Nutter Wm G Wood and Eddy started with the party, but came back after being out two or three days About 75 miles from the Dalles they lost 7 animals and left the packs carried by them The party then proceeded without difficulty and reached Otter Bar Jan 3d, where some of the party had before discovered gold

On the 8th of Jan R Hightower and F W Quimby sold out their provisions, and started back for the Dalles with an express for the company

On the 14th, John Stevens and the four Frenchmen above named sold their provisions and started for the Dalles with their animals

On the 20th Jan P F Holbridge, Thos Nutter, Wm White, Sam'l Shaffer, and M. Hanley, started for the Dalles for the purpose of getting goods to supply the miners and start a store at Otter Bar They brought with them all the animals that were left in the company but 15, and all the money—about $650—watches, rings, etc, with which to buy goods

By this time they had cabins built, and were experiencing very cold weather Did a little prospecting in a bank of gravel ten feet deep, and taking the dirt from top to bottom, they got in 75 buckets of dirt $150, rather coarse Plenty of dirt and water, and a good chance for sluicing All satisfied with the prospect

On the 26th of Jan B Woodard and Jos Seror, with 14 animals started for the Dalles after a general stock of merchandise

Feb 9th, Seror returned to camp and reported that about 60 miles this side of Otter Bar, a party of Indians surprised them in camp about daybreak, and shot at them, killing Woodard instantly Seror was cooking breakfast, and Woodard was standing by the fire Before this however they had discovered that their animals were gone Seror carried Woodard into the tent during which time another shot passed through his coat Woodard was now dead Nothing spoken Seror, seeing the Indians, some eight or nine in number, seized his gun to fire but another bullet hit the hammer and it went off He then snatched up ammunition and pocket book out of the tent and ran back towards Otter Bar where he arrived after traveling three days without provisions or blankets

A meeting was called whereupon it was resolved to make their way out to the Dalles as best they could They then set to work and built boats with which to descend the river and on the 17th Feb started After two days slow progress they were obliged to leave the boats and after eating their provisions all but 25 pounds the main party set out for Otter Bar On coming to the camp where Woodard was killed, they found no trace except the bones which had been apparently burned and little ashes from bullets and the trail in packed hills Same day passed the camp where Hardig Nutter White Shaffer and Handey were supposed to have been killed Here it was dusk, and they halted but a few minutes but saw fragments of saddles with spots of blood upon them and also a bloody finger mark upon a tree Traveled till 9 o'clock at night and camped without fire Next day passed the spot where Stevens and the Frenchmen are supposed to have shared the same fate as the rest Three pick handles, the torn leaves of a French grammar and fragments of other plunder, were found there They encountered no serious difficulty in coming in, and got to the Dalles the 7th of March The camps of Quimby and Hightower were found until they passed Pine Grove, and as they have not been heard from, it is supposed that they perished in the snow or were drowned in crossing John Day's river

I am indebted for the above statement to Mr Lewis, of the party His intention, as is that of most of the company, is to return and try it again as soon as a party large enough can be raised

Capt Curry, with a detachment of twelve men, Mr Darragh and several other citizens, will start to-morrow in pursuit of the Indians who committed the murders

A Curiosity.

A friend has handed us a copy of the "Louisville Daily Courier" which is dated and printed at 'Bowling Green' Jan 7th, 1862 The history of this paper is briefly this The Louisville Daily Courier was a secession sheet of the same character as the Portland Advertiser The General Government refused the use of the mails to circulate it The consequence was that the paper ceased to be published in Louisville, but the editors true to their treason, escaped into the rebel camp at Bowling Green Ky., where surrounded by rebel troops they resumed the publication of their traitor as sheet We extract from the number before us two paragraphs (Extraordinary of the paper

'It was rumored in Hopkinsville, a few days ago, that six hundred Dutch Cavalry were in Crittenden county, on their way to Princeton. Two companies of Col Forrest's famous cavalry, under the commands of Capts Overton and Hay were promptly dispatched in pursuit of them They, however, were unable to overhaul the ill favored thieves — Scenting danger from afar the vile robbers took themselves to the mountain fastnesses and thus escaped the punishment which their villainies so justly merit

Our excellent friend Dr Wm N Gaither, accompanied the expedition filling himself in readiness to the opportunities cut off legs and peculiarly anxious to shoot a fine lettered Yankee or Dutchman

'Now that the Yankee race has placed in their true position before the world as tyrants without courage, and cowards without shame the battle for the South is virtually won The whole world is now satisfied of this fact and it remains only to prove it to the Yankees themselves If it is the Devil will that we should teach them this lesson effectually, we are ready to do so cheerfully to perform that duty'

The breaking up of the rebel army at Bowling Green has undoubtedly induced the traitor editors again to take wing But the chances are that they will not find a resting place for the sole of their feet, at last long enough to give us new impressions of their Daily Louisville Courier It is strange editors while at Louisville boasted highly of their love for the Union

The Daily Oregonian.

CITY.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

ARRIVAL OF THE JULIA.—The steamer Julia returned from the Cascades last night, having made a connection with the steamer from the Dalles. Mr. Jones, of Tracy & Co.'s express, came down. He says there is only one impediment in the river, about three miles below the Dalles where the ice still blocks the channel. Eight of the John Days mining expedition came down. Capt. Lewis, a resident of Yamhill country, one of the party, had the kindness to call on us. Our readers will find the details of the news in our letter from the Dalles.

THE CARRIE LADD.—This steamer, which has been laying up for some time, has been thoroughly overhauled and repaired, and resumes her trips between this city and the Cascades this morning. Her Captain, Jas. Strang, is well and favorably known among our citizens as a courteous and able commander; and her purser, Mr. Wyman, who has for many years acted in that capacity on our ocean steamers, is also well known. Those whose good luck it will be to travel on the Carrie Ladd will find her a staunch and well conducted boat, and her officers gentlemen.

THEATRICAL.—The audience were moved to tears last night in witnessing Mrs. Forbes in the character of Mrs. Haller in "The Stranger." Mr. Beatty is Stanislaus, the first is as the "Stranger" and played it well all through. The songs of Miss Lawrence were really charming.

To-night will be presented the great tragic drama of "Lucrezia Borgia," Mrs. Forbes as Lucrezia. Go and see it every body.

MAJOR WINSTON.—Major P. M. Winston, Paymaster in the army, and long time resident of this city, has removed his official quarters to Vancouver. During Major Winston's stay among us he made many friends, and his departure is very much regretted.

CIRCUIT COURT.—Nothing of importance was transacted in this Court yesterday. The entire day was occupied in the law cause of Tibbets vs. Love.

CHARGED WITH FORGERY.—The Constable brought up a prisoner arrested at Astoria by the name of White, charged with forging a note against a party in this place.

THE WATER FRANCHISE.—In the Board of Common Council last night, the Ordinance granting an exclusive right to lay water pipes through the streets of the city, was tabled pending its third reading.

THANKS.—We are indebted to Tracy & Co. for repeated favors and a copy of yesterday's Mountaineer.

THE SIERRA NEVADA.—From the Purser of the Coulitz we learn that the steamer only left the mouth of the Willamette last night, having been detained all day in taking on horses and mules for Government.

We notice that Hon. O. C. Pratt, of California, is in attendance on the Circuit Court, now in session in this city.

We clip the following items from the Mountaineer:

"A gentleman just down from Walla Walla informs us that everything is moving along quietly in that locality. Provisions, although not abundant, are sufficient for present demands, and the stories of suffering for want of the necessaries of life are pronounced sheer fabrications. The *States*man has not been issued for several weeks. A party of eleven persons, who are known to have left Salmon River late in January, have not been heard from, and fears are entertained that they perished from the severity of the weather."

DALLES MARKET.—All articles of first necessity now readily command high prices. Flour is sold at $13 per barrel, Barley commands $6 per hundred. Beef 12 cents per pound; Pork 25 cents, and other articles in proportion. The supply of vegetables is exhausted, and for weeks the market has been bare of potatoes, onions, etc. Under these circumstances, a sudden influx of strangers must be attended with serious inconvenience.

A. F. & A. M.—A Special Meeting of Willamette Lodge No. 2 A. F. & A. M., will be held at Masonic Hall on Sunday next, at 2 o'clock P. M. for the purpose of paying the last rites of Masonry to the deceased Bro. I. E. JAGGER.

Members of Lodges and visiting brethren are invited to attend.

By order of

C. H. LEWIS, W. M.

How to go to the Mines.—Miners who may propose to go to Salmon River, Rhodes Creek, or the other mining regions should not start out prepared to travel through a cold and starved out country for provisions, all who have come from above to the Cascades state that the country is now bare of all kinds of provisions, and having been cut off by the Indians, from the Dalles, therefore we would enjoin all who wish to go, to go forthwith, and return with their packs stuffed full of stores to call into HARKER BROTHERS' store on Front wharf, and supply themselves with Flour, Pork, Bacon, Groceries, Blankets, Clothing, Rubber and Navy Goods, and all other articles necessary for mining purposes before they embark for the Land of Promise.

Commercial and Financial.

The Columbia to the Dalles is now open. The Julia made her first trip to the Cascades yesterday morning. The Carrie Ladd will leave for the same point this morning. Miners will now be mosting towards the mines; but at the last dates from the Dalles the river above could not be navigated above the Falls.

The Brother Jonathan from San Francisco is now over due.

We have little change to make in our quotations. The main articles of provisions are very high, all market articles especially

A LESSON OF CONTENT

Up in the forest, dark and wild,
Where there are no human feet to come,
No laugh or song of a little child,
Nor honey bee with its droning hum—
I chanced on the branch of an aged pine
With its solemn shadow on the ground
Wandering at once at noon's decline,
There a maid I first found.

Why, I said, hast thou builded here?
Yonder the thickets blossom and bloom
Yonder the garden's shade and flowers
Would shelter thee in the still hot noon
Here thou breathest for naught thy lay
It should be poured 'mid murmuring streams
Where the child will hear and his play
And tell it to angels in his dreams.

But the gentle song of the lonely bird
Warbled on sweet and bright
And the solemn boughs of the pine were stirred
Under that low, tranquil sky
For the home of my heart, as thought he said,
And the nest for my young is soft and fine,
Taken care of by thy sunlight,
For thy garden gloom we build for pine and vine
Hast thy the hand of The Father here,
We are happy nor wish to roam
Though the fate of the wild is dark and drear,
We love not fancy fine.

I turned me back to the home of my heart
And what I own but grace?
But it came to me and will with me back
With all I have—Dear Home
So from life's fitful fever apart
Could I weave my songs within a palace door
I'd tell all I sing for I live days spent
And sigh for my children more.

MORE AMERICAN HORSES FOR FRANCE.—It seems that Napoleon III adheres to his fondness for American horses. We have formerly had occasion to notice several purchases of horses for him in this country. A fine Black Hawk gelding, bred at Montpelier, Vermont, is said to be a favorite charger of the Emperor. The transport Orono, which left this port several days since, took out twelve horses said to have been purchased for the Emperor by Prince Napoleon, during his late visit to this country. We are not particularly informed in regard to the origin of the horses, but understand that a portion of them were from Western New York, and others from New England, comprising specimens of several branches of the Morgan family.—Boston Cultivator.

Proceedings of the Teachers' State Institute

FRIDAY, Feb. 14th.

The Institute was called to order by Vice President Hall.

The exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. O. Dickinson.

Mr. Gatch made some very interesting remarks on the structure and functions of the eye.

Mr. Hall gave an explanation of the philosophy of the circulation of the blood and made very pertinent application of the subject to the school duties of students.

Mr. Crawford exhibited a human skeleton and explained the structure, making appropriate remarks on the manner of preventing the deformity of young persons.

Mr. Hall delivered a lecture on Natural Philosophy, replete with interest and instruction.

At the close of his lecture, a very interesting discussion sprung up on the old axiom that, "A ball projected into the air will return again in the same time as occupied in ascending." Messrs. Hoel Avery and Davenport denying it's correctness.

AFTERNOON SESSION—2 P. M.

Rev. O. Dickinson delivered an address on "Moral Science" as applied to the business of teaching. He said that moral training should not be crowded out of view by the physical and mental; that one of the first qualifications of a teacher should be an ability to direct the moral faculties in a proper channel; that one of his first duties should be to place before his pupils a high standard of moral excellence. He said that the education of the mental, moral and physical faculties should go hand in hand, and neither encroach upon the other.

That the bent of moral conceptions received at school would follow the pupil and influence his character through his whole life. The pupil should be taught specifically, to have a just and generous regard for the rights of others; but the teacher could not do this unless he had this quality in himself. If good men are found anywhere they should be found in the school room.

Upon the close of his lecture a discussion arose upon penalties and penal usages in schools, in which Messrs. Hall, Avery, Dickinson and Rowland participated.

Prof. Rowland delivered a lecture upon Geography. He urged the use of globes and black board illustrations and suggested that reading lessons might treat of geography, and thus be useful in a double sense. Methods of teaching and illustrations should be varied sufficiently often to insure the interest of the pupil.

Mr. Avery offered the following resolution for discussion this evening:

Resolved, That it is desirable for the State by direct tax, to raise an amount of money sufficient to defray the expenses of a school in every district to be committed to the county superintendents for distribution among the districts according to numbers, subject to the condition that the county raise an equal sum.

Which was adopted.

Adjourned to meet at the M. L. Church at seven o'clock P. M.

EVENING SESSION—7 P. M.

President Hall called the Institute to order.

The exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. O. Dickinson.

A partial discussion of the resolution in relation to free schools followed in which Messrs. Rowland, Hoel Avery, Dickinson, Roberts and others took part, all concurring in the objects of the resolution.

After which the resolution was passed.

SATURDAY, Feb. 15.

The Institute met pursuant to adjournment, and Mr. Hall delivered a lecture on Algebra.

Mr. Pringle delivered a lecture on Algebra defining the mathematical process of solving equations, illustrations on the black board. Several problems were solved and the principles explained by Messrs. Gatch, Conn and McWhorter.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The following resolutions were then changed, by passing the word "annually" and bringing up the consideration of the question of

Mr. Hall then gave a lecture on the system of common schools of Illinois.

Mr. Hall then gave a lecture on the system of common schools of Illinois—What the State will take, should in locating a system, to provide for the future benefit of the State to provide the fund for the intellectual welfare and high moral character. He said the inefficacy of the system to afford adequate provisions as a remedy for the present evil, and that the attention should be given to a State Superintendent whose salary should enable him to devote his whole time to the duties and his faithfulness should be secured by appropriate oaths of office, bonds &c. Further him and direct the answerable to him, should have a county superintendent in each county whose duties should be performed in like manner. He recommended the immediate sale of all lands given to the State, and that effectual means be used to place the school funds at interest to profitable to the school.

The subject was further discussed by Messrs. Bernard, Hoel, Rowland, Powell and others, after which the following resolution, offered by Mr. Crandall, was passed.

Resolved, That the paramount duty of a government, is to provide all suitable laws and the most effectual methods, for the welfare of its people and in so far as any government shall fail short of that it fails of answering the purposes of civil compacts. That the best and shortest means to this end is to be found in the obligation to protect the persons and property of subjects, cannot be fulfilled alone by penal statutes against offenders but by removing so far as possible the usual incentives to crime that Poverty and Ignorance are mainly the parents of vice and crime, and as the former are removed, the latter follow in exact ratio that the best possible means to effect that end is the establishment of a system of free schools supported by the State in which the children of all classes may receive a liberal education.

On motion the Secretary was authorized to prepare a digest of the proceedings of the Institute, and request their publication in the leading papers in the State.

The Institute then adjourned to meet in Salem on the first Wednesday of August, 1862.

Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are a source of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC Affections. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, resort should at once be had to Brown's Bronchial Troches, or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight as by this precaution many more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. See advertisement.

Californians should test the merits of Dr. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. While it is highly palatable as a beverage, it is unequalled as a tonic and invigorator. In the pursuit of fortune at the mines, many persons are exposed to the attacks of one or more of the most regular and of various kinds of fever. It is the very article that has been found in the mines. Its daily use will restore the tone of a deranged stomach, impart fresh activity to the digestive functions, and lift the spirits. Not the bitter is the safest of all stimulants. Let the miner who is exposed to hot and dry, wet and cold, persevere to obtain a supply of the genuine Hostetter Bitter and he will find it a certain safeguard to health.—Sold by Druggists and Dealers everywhere. 16 ft

The Medical and Surgical Institute of DR. L. J. CZAPKAY is already secured in a position which places it as well as its proprietor far above the assaults of envy and unprofessional malice. In the schools of France the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in this department of medical science and they occupy with others an equally high position in the profession. Dr. Czapkay is said to be a young man of shining light among the gifted sons of Æsculapius, and Dr. Czapkay's success in Portland is another proof of which the Diploma and the very flattering endorsements given by this gifted operator with high qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army, for more extended labors. Dr. L. J. Czapkay has found his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become so great an expert that he is now regarded as the LEADER in this branch of his profession through out the United States and his portraits and biography are published as matter of interest to their readers in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute on Sacramento street, corner of Leibenstorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. Union State Convention.

The qualified voters of the State of Oregon, who are in favor of the suppression of the present wicked rebellion—of a vigorous prosecution of war so long as necessary to frustrate the mad schemes of armed traitors—who are opposed to any peace other than the honorable one sure to come when rebels and their sympathizers submit to the constitutionally elected and qualified authorities, and legally enacted laws of the Government—who think more of country than of party prejudice and individual preference—who are in favor of supporting the general government in its endeavors to defend the Constitution, execute the laws, and preserve the Union, and who are willing to unite for the election of a ticket upon such a basis at the coming general election, without reference to former political associations, are requested to meet at the places of voting in the several precincts in the various counties of the State on Saturday, the 22d day of March, A. D. 1862, to choose delegates to County Conventions to be held in the respective counties of the State, at the county seats thereof, on Saturday the 29th day of March, A. D. 1862, for the purpose of selecting delegates to a State Convention, to be held at Eugene City, Lane county, on Wednesday, the 9th day of April, 1862, for the purpose of nominating a Union Ticket for State Officers and Member of Congress, as follows: Jackson county, 10 Delegates; Josephine, 6; Douglas, 8; Curry, 1; Coose, 1; Umpqua, 2; Lane, 8; Benton, 5; Linn, 10; Polk, 5; Yamhill, 6; Marion, 12; Clackamas, 6; Multnomah, 8; Washington, 4; Columbia, 1; Clatsop, 1; Tillamook, 1; Wasco, 4.

We recommend the holding of precinct and county meetings at the hour of one o'clock p. m., and the meeting of the State Convention at eleven o'clock, of the days named.

To the Republicans of Oregon.

The undersigned were instructed at the last State Convention to Convene the Republicans of the State at their next meeting at Eugene City.

Events that have transpired since the meeting of the last State Convention could not then be foreseen, and issues are now presented to the people, paramount to all issues that heretofore divided political parties.

While we claim no right to dissolve the Republican organization, nor do we see any cause to recant any political principle heretofore held by us, yet believing that the vital issue now before the people is the preservation or destruction of our institutions, we are unwilling to do anything to distract the Union sentiment in the coming canvass, and therefore have deemed it unwise to call a party convention with a view to the support of a distinctively Republican ticket.

In taking this course, we have been guided by the expressed wishes of Republicans throughout the State, and an honest desire on our part, to avoid any barrier to the hearty support of a Union ticket by the loyal support of the State without regard to former political differences.

History verifies the fact that the Fathers of our common country, supposed that they had cemented a perpetual Union; they are only traitors who have now attempted to undo their work; we therefore call upon one and all to the support of the priceless inheritance bequeathed to us by the founders of this Republic. He that neglects, for any trivial cause at this time, to testify his devotion to our country; to a government that has made us the most prosperous and favored people on the face of the Globe, is not worthy the name of American citizen! We therefore trust to the intelligence and patriotism of the loyal people of this State, to show by unanimity at the coming convention and election, their abhorrence of secession and treason, their love of country, its prosperity and perpetuity.

We therefore earnestly recommend to the Republican voters of the State, that without regard to party, they should in the coming canvass, heartily unite in nominating and supporting a ticket composed of Union men who stand the test embraced in the call which is herewith published.

E. D. SHATTUCK,
W. C. JOHNSON,
